To Whom It May Concern:

Ms. Judah Raine has worked as an editor on works of fiction for Astraea Press, LLC. In my position as Senior Editor and Team Leader, I have had the pleasure of supervising Judah as a member of my team on several occasions. She has performed a number of editing tasks, from content editing to line editing to proofing, in a variety of fiction genres. She is a genuine asset to the Astraea Press editing team.

Ms. Raine displays dedication to her work that shows in the thoroughness of her edits and her attention to detail, as well as in her ability to meet deadlines, some of which have been fairly tight. Her scope of knowledge has been proven with the quality of her work. She consistently maintains a professional attitude, showing the perfect balance of friendliness and respect to the authors for whom she edits, while at the same time firmly guiding them to a polished rendition of their books. Authors who have had the privilege of working with Judah speak highly of her skills and her affable nature.

I highly recommend Judah Raine for any position in the writing and editing industry. Should you have questions, please feel free to contact me at 434-270-8757.

Sincerely,

Katherine M. Tate
